

CRITICAL ILLNESS BENEFITS

Critical Illness Benefits can be used to offset uninsured medical expenses, provide home renovations for wheelchair accessibility, provide nursing care, help with ongoing responsibilities/payments such as childcare, mortgage loan payments, etc.

Any Critical Illness Benefit deemed payable is payable to the Plan Member.

You are not entitled to Critical Illness Benefits automatically. To qualify for benefits, we must determine that:

- Your Group contract provides coverage for the specified illness/condition claimed;
- You have submitted satisfactory proof of the covered condition as defined in your Group contract;
- You have completed a survival period (as defined in the covered condition); and
- You have met the terms and conditions in your Group contract.

Please refer to your Group Contract to confirm coverage for the condition claimed.

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS REQUIRED

Plan Sponsor Statement

Ensure the Plan Sponsor Statement is submitted to our office by your employer.

Claimant Statement

Asks general information about you, your condition and the nature of your symptoms and treatment for the purpose of assessing your claim. Please complete all questions on this form and be sure to include your Group and Account Number.

Physician Statement

Ask the specified physician to complete the form. Ensure that the physician includes copies of office records, investigations, consultation reports and any additional medical information that may assist us with your claim.

You are responsible for providing medical proof that you are entitled to receive Critical Illness Benefits. Your physician may request a fee for completing claim forms which will be your responsibility. If we request information directly from your physician, we may offer to pay your physician a correspondence fee.

CLAIM INTERVIEW

An insurance company representative may telephone you to obtain information about your medical history and current condition.

AUTHORIZATION AND PRIVACY

We need your permission to obtain information that will help us assess your claim. By signing the authorization request, you give us permission to obtain this information from your treatment providers, other insurers and hospitals where you received treatment.

Co-operators is committed to protecting the privacy, confidentiality, accuracy and security of the personal information it collects, uses, keeps and shares in the course of conducting business.

You can find more details about our privacy policy and how to contact our Privacy Officer at www.cooperators.ca/privacy.

Co-operators Privacy Statement

At Co-operators, we recognize and respect the importance of privacy. When you apply for insurance or open an account with us, we will ask for your consent to collect, use, keep and share your personal information. We will explain what information we need, what we will use it for and who we will share it with. We will open a confidential file to collect, use, keep and share your personal information for the purposes of confirming your identity, reviewing your insurance needs and determining suitability of our products and services for you, assessing your application for insurance, issuing and administering your policy, including assessing and processing claims, administering your investments, meeting our contractual and regulatory obligations, detecting and preventing fraud, and performing business and statistical analysis. We will not share your personal information for other purposes, except with your consent or as required or permitted by law.

We may tell you about products and services that may be of interest to you. You can tell us what information you want to receive from us and you can withdraw your consent at any time. You may access and correct, if needed, the personal information in your file by sending us a request in writing.

We limit access to your personal information to our staff and other people we have authorized who need to use it to perform their duties. This may include our third-party service providers who may use your personal information for processing, storage, analysis and disaster recovery purposes outside of your province of residence or Canada. They could be required by law to give your personal information to courts, governments or regulators outside of Canada. To protect your personal information, we ensure that privacy and security requirements are included in all third-party service provider contracts.
