

Board of Directors Committee Structure

The board is supported by five standing committees who perform according to different mandates that summarize their role and responsibilities and guide the focus of their work, as summarized below. The Co-operators Group Limited Board of Directors also serves as the board for The Co-operators Financial Services Limited, Co-operators General Insurance Company, Co-operators Life Insurance Company, The Sovereign General Insurance company, COSECO Insurance Company, CUMIS General Insurance Company and CUMIS Life Insurance Company (together “the Company”).

The Audit Committee assists the board of directors in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, and reporting practices of the company, and such other duties as directed by the board. The committee's purpose is to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the company, the audits of the company's financial statements, the qualifications of the public accounting firm engaged as the company's independent auditor to prepare or issue an audit report on the financial statements of the company, and the performance of the company's internal audit function and independent auditor. The committee reviews and assesses the qualitative aspects of financial reporting to shareholders, and other key stakeholders and compliance with significant applicable legal, ethical, and regulatory requirements. The committee is directly responsible for the appointment (subject to member approval), compensation, retention, and oversight of the independent auditor. Management, on the other hand, is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the interim and annual financial statements and related disclosure documents. Management is also responsible for maintaining appropriate accounting and financial reporting policies and systems of internal controls and procedures that are in compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws and regulations and that provide reasonable assurances that assets are safeguarded and that transactions are authorized, executed, recorded and reported properly.

The Corporate Governance and Conduct Review Committee's role is to:

- develop and recommend policies and practices to maintain high standards and best practices in corporate and co-operative governance;
- serve as a centre of self-reflection to build and enhance governance effectiveness through board and director education and performance management programs;
- carry out board responsibilities with respect to the Self-Dealing provisions as set out in Part XI of the Insurance Companies Act, and the other sections of the Insurance Companies Act which specifically mandate or reference the Conduct Review Committee;
- carry out board responsibilities with respect to matters involving conflicts of interest and the conduct of related parties to The Co-operators and without limiting the generality of the foregoing responsibilities of the board concerning those matters as set out in the Appendices;
- oversee the Company's Regulatory Compliance Management Program, including the Company's identification of key regulations, regulatory risk management policies, compliance assessment, monitoring and reporting; and
- provide oversight of the Company's Chief Compliance Officer, giving guidance and advice and fulfilling the oversight responsibility of the board of directors in relation to the Company's Compliance programs

The Committee also conducts an annual review of and advises management on the board of directors budget.

The Member and Co-operative Relations Committee provides oversight to strategic initiatives that ensure The Co-operators delivers on its goal to be the insurance provider of choice for member and co-operative clients and plays a leadership role in the national and international co-operative communities. The Committee oversees membership and reviews strategies to advance The Co-operators co-operative identity with its key stakeholders.

The Committee also has responsibility for The Co-operators Democratic Structure Review process. The Chairperson of the Member & Co-operative Relations Committee also serves as the Chairperson of the Resolutions Committee.

The Risk and Compensation Committee oversees the Company's Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) Program, including the Company's identification of key risks, risk appetite, risk management policies, risk measurement and assessment, risk monitoring and reporting, and program compliance. The Committee provides oversight of the Company's Chief Risk Officer, gives guidance and advice to senior management on strategic issues linked to The Co-operators Top Risk Issues and fulfils the oversight responsibility of the board of directors in relation to the Company's lending and investment programs.

The Committee develops for the approval of the board of directors and periodically evaluates the board of directors' and President and CEO's compensation programs. It administers the performance management programs of the President and CEO and Executive Vice-President, Member Relations, Governance and Corporate Services. The Committee ensures that effective management succession plans are in place and provides oversight of the Company's responsibilities as Sponsor of The Co-operators Retirement Plan.

The Sustainability & Citizenship Committee is responsible for fostering best practices in sustainability governance and providing oversight of the sustainability performance of The Co-operators group of companies. It monitors and advises on measures to enhance sustainability governance practices at the board and subsidiary boards. It reviews and recommends policies, strategies and annual plans to advance the Company towards its sustainability vision and monitors sustainability policy implementation, implementation of the sustainability components of the corporate strategy and stakeholder engagement. The Committee monitors integration of sustainability risk management across the Company. It advises the board on the sustainability impact of key decisions. Specifically, the committee is assigned with the lead oversight responsibility for climate-related issues, risks and opportunities.

The Committee also provides oversight of the corporate citizenship programs of The Co-operators Group and its group of companies. Corporate citizenship is also referred to as "community investment" and pertains to corporate donations, sponsorships, employee volunteering and other aspects of our community contributions.
