Who is this Fund for?

For investors seeking both growth and income through a combination of equities and fixed income securities and who have a medium to long-term investment horizon. Investors should be comfortable with some ups and downs of the market.

How much does it cost?

The following shows the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell units of the fund.

1. Surrender Charges

This is a no-load product. There are no deferred sales charges.

2. Ongoing fund expense

The Management Expense Ratio (MER) includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantee works, see your Policy and Information Folder. For details on the MER, please see the Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

Co-operators Life Insurance Company pays your financial advisor a trailing commission for as long as you own segregated funds. It is for the services and advice your financial advisor provides you. The annual trailing commission of 0.38% is paid from the management fee and is based on the value of your fund assets.

3. Other Fees

You may pay other fees when you sell or transfer units of the fund.

Withdrawal service fee	$25 after the second withdrawal each calendar year
Interfund transfer fee	$20 after the fourth interfund transfer each calendar year

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation or five business days after it is mailed. You have to tell us in writing (email, fax, or letter) that you want to cancel. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount you invested or the value of the fund if it has gone down. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction.

You can also change your mind about subsequent transactions you make under the policy within two business days from the date you received confirmation. In this case, the right to cancel only applies to the new transaction.
